

share your story

Please share your story!

Stories are a powerful tool to help lawmakers, the media and the public understand the need for affordable, quality health care.

Name _____ Phone _____

Address _____ City _____

State _____ Zip _____ Email (if available) _____ Age (if 18 or under) _____

For Students/Youth, Patients, Parents, Teachers, Support Staff:

Please check all that apply: I am a Student/Youth ___ Patient ___ Parent ___ Teacher ___ Support Staff ___

Is there a WHAT Wellness Center at your school? Y / N

Please answer the following questions:

If you would have received health service somewhere outside of your school-based health center that day or later, where would that have been?

Are you covered under a health insurance plan?

How were you impacted by your visit to the school-based health center?

How were your peers impacted by their or your visit to the school-based health center?

What if, any, impact did your visit have on your school or family?

Wilmington Health Access for Teens may use my story in the following formats

(check all that apply):

_____ In print (newspapers, newsletters, brochures, presentations, etc)

_____ On the website or when using social media (facebook)

_____ With pictures of me

_____ On video or audio tape, including for television

_____ I am willing to testify or speak publicly in person

I want the story to include my:

_____ Real name

_____ A pretend name like "Jane" or "John" (so my story can be told, but no one knows it is me)

(see page 2)

May we have permission to share your story in the ways you checked above?

Yes! _____ or Parent/Guardian signature _____

(Please sign here if you are over 18) (It is okay to publicly share my child's story or my own story)

Wilmington Health Access for Teens advances access to quality health care for youth.

All stories are valuable. Will you share yours? You might consider using one of these prompts to help you get started telling your story:

- I couldn't go to a doctor because....
- At my school-based health center I was....
- My experience with health care would be better if....
- If it weren't for the help I received at my health center...
- I appreciate that at my school-based health center....
- Because I didn't have health insurance...

Share Your Story here....

Please encourage others to share their stories!

Please return this form:

Wilmington Health Access for Teens

4005 Oleander Drive, Wilmington, NC 28403 Ph: (910) 790-9949 Fax (910) 790-9455